Sad Affliction of Two Sisters. Margaret and Mary E. Marting, sisters, who reside on a well-cultivated County, have for some time past been suspected of being mentally unsound. Their brother-in-law until recently had been looking after their business affairs, but it was thought best to legally test the sanity of the sisters, so that a guardian might be appointed. This was done; and after the examination of quite a number of witnesses from the vicinity where the Martings reside the jury returned a verdict that the sisters are of unsound mind. A guardian will be appointed.

MONEY AND BUSINESS.

The State of Finance and Commerce Throughout the Country as Reflected Through R. G. Dun & Co's Weekly Review-The Business Outlook More Hopeful and the Supply of Money More Plentiful-The Week Notable for the Large Number of Business Failures. NEW YORK, Dec. 6.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

The business outlook is more hopeful.

There has been numerous failures, and there is still much pressure, but the supply of money has so improved by treasury pur-chases of bonds and by shipments of gold from Europe, that there is more ground for confidence and actual improvement. Until after January 1, not much relief can be expected, and followers of unwise legislation continue to cause much withdrawal of money from active use, but for the present there is less pressure here or at Boston. The South reports fair business in spite of the continuing decline in cotton. Spirits move freely at Savannah, oranges at Jacksonville and sugar, molasses and rice at New Orleans, all at good prices. The supply of money is ample for necessities at New Orleans, but at other points money is tight, though banks help their customers as far as they can in legitimate business only. At the West colder weather has helped trade at Cincinnati, Detroit and some other points, and business is only fair at Denver; good for the season with large cattle and hog receipts at Kansas City; strong, with liberal distribution of goods at St. 1 ouis; fur for the season at St. Paul, and more active in holiday lines at Cincinnati. At Chicago business continues much larger than last year, being little affected by Eastern troubles, and the receipts of most products show increase. At Pittsburgh the worst is thought to be over. Boston observes improved demand for leather at the lower prices, and refail goods are kess active for seasonable products; wool sales are small and wholesale generally quiet. Philadelphia not s little improvement. Iron production increased in November, reaching 187,845 tons December 1, a gain of nearly 600 for the month, and over 14,000 tons compared with last year. Several new and large furnaces have gone into blast, but later dispatches show that within two weeks a number have stopped production, and one Southern establishment has failed. The woolen manufacture is doing decidedly better than a year ago, but heavy woolens open at last year's prices. This is a waiting market for knit goods and a shrinking demand for dress goods. The cotton manufacture is less satisfactory and some works are suspending production, print cloths having fallen to 3 cents for six-fours. The speculative markets have not been very active. Tin has risen half a cent during the week, but copper is of uncertain price, offers at 16 cer 16 for lake being unavailing, and the market for lead is thoroughly demoralized by itaportations of 6,000 tons at the recent speculative prices. Treasury payments for bonds do not yet appear in statements of cash, which show no loss for the week. The most significant fact is that a very large proportion of the money was taken in gold by the sellers of bonds, presumably for withdrawal until uncertainties about silver legislation have passed. But the fall in foreign exchange and the movement of over $5,000, 000 gold to this side show a disposition of European investors to take some properties here at current prices. The commercial troubles outside of monetary stringency are mainly due to excessive purchases made in anticipation of a great rise in prices.

The failures during the last seven days number, for the United States, 347, and for Canada 27, or a total of 374, as compared with a total of 249 last week. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 200, representing 260 in the United States and 20 in Canada.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.-The Irish Parliamentary Fund Association issued a document last night, declaring against Parnell. The paper is signed by the members of the executive committee, including the best-known and wealthi-

The Steamer city of Baton Rouge Sunk. NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 13.-A telephone message to the Times-Democrat reports that the Anchor Line steamer City of Baton Rouge, from St. Louis for New Orleans, with a full cargo of Western produce, sank at 3 p. m. near Hermitage landing. The boat and cargo are a to-

The accident occurred while making a landing at Hermitage. A snag was struck, believed to be the same one that caused the loss of the Paris C. Brown in 1889. When the boat struck, the hog chains seemed to give way, the hull bogan to sink rapidly, soon broke in two and disappeared. Two unknown deck passengers were drowned. It is possible that six or eight passengers taken on board on the way down were lost, but this is not authentic. The vessel was valued at $75,000, and the cargo at $100,000.
